The 5 minute Forest School Plan

...print and scribble away!

Session 5

Cancelled due to weather

What is the THEME?

We're Going on a
Bear Hunt

How does it fit in to previous or future sessions?

- Using found materials to make props/settings for story

Objectives

- Use natural environment to explore the bear hunt story
- create a mud kitchen to act out the cooking skills we've been doing in playschool

How will you differentiate these activities?

- provide story pictures to help with story telling
- provide 'bear' masks to help role play
- provide 'recipes' for mud kitchen to provide challenge for those that would like it (number recognition)

What sequence could your activities follow?

Activity 1

Read 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt' while having snack

Activity 2

Can the children find any parts of the story? Pictures hidden in woods.

Activity 3

Can we make the settings from the story? What can we use?

Activity 4

Can we make a 'Cave' for the bear?

Health and safety issues?

- Collecting materials - look out for nettles, rubbish etc

What tools or equipment will you need?

- Pans, Spoons etc
- mud kitchen recipes
- bear hunt story
- bear hunt pictures and masks

Opportunity for reflection?

Can other children tell what our creations are?
